Introduction

Highlights of the achievements and excellence of the Ministry of State for Federal National Council Affairs

In 2022, the Federal National Council celebrated its (fiftieth) anniversary, as the Council held its first session on Saturday, February 12, 1972, in order to reinforce the sound Shura approach upon which the UAE was founded. It was the result of a unique relationship between Their Highnesses the Rulers of the Emirates and the citizens, which embodied - over decades - the highest meanings of belonging to the homeland and loyalty to its wise leadership, which has been keen - since the establishment of the Union - to communicate with citizens, listen to their complaints, take the initiative to meet their needs, and provide all the necessary capabilities and mechanisms to enable them to reach the top ranks globally. In this sense, the establishment of the Federal National Council is considered an important milestone in the journey of achievements made in the UAE, to consolidate the values of true participation and the sound Shura approach through a regular, gradual path, in line with the nature and specificity of the Emirati society, and to be a supporting, guiding and supportive authority for the federal government, and an effective partner in achieving the path of development and progress through a package of federal laws that kept pace with the directives of the wise leadership and its aspirations to achieve the highest rates of quality of life, well-being and happiness for the people of the union.

Since its establishment in 2006, the Ministry of State for Federal National Council Affairs has been keen to carry out the tasks assigned to it in the most complete manner, which can be summarized in several main tasks, namely: coordination between the government and the Federal National Council regarding the Federal National Council's exercise of its powers, participation in the preparation of legislation related to the role of the Federal National Council, supervision of media affairs in relation to parliamentary life, and performing the role of the Secretariat of the National Elections Committee to implement the Federal National Council elections, and any other powers granted to it pursuant to laws, regulations and Cabinet decisions.

The Ministry, through excellence in performance and working as a team, was able to achieve accomplishments within the scope of its work, as it succeeded in implementing its operational plans based on the best global practices in project management, which contributed to achieving its strategic plan for the year 2022 by (88.90%) as a general performance indicator, so that the Ministry was classified among the top (10) competitive entities in strategic performance for the year 2021 based on the government performance management system (performance 3.0), and the Ministry achieved the (third) place in the study of the readiness of the work environment for the future in the federal government compared to federal entities by (83%).

With regard to the strategic performance indicator; the Ministry's achievement rate reached (94.82%), while the achievement rate in the operational performance indicator reached (96.79%), while the satisfaction rates of some categories of those dealing with the Ministry exceeded (100%).

The Ministry also won a number of local and international awards, as it won the sixth session of the Mohammed bin Rashid Award for Excellence in Government Performance as the best entity in quality of life in the work environment, in addition to winning two Stevie Awards; The Ministry won the Gold Award and first place in the Best Overall Performance category in the Government Entity category, and also won the Gold Award for Best Human Resources Management in the World. This annual report includes more information and details about the journey of excellence in the performance of the Ministry of State for Federal National Council Affairs, by highlighting some of the milestones and achievements made by the Ministry, through which it keeps pace with the directions and vision of the UAE government in global leadership and excellence.
